20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The HTAC reviews relevant work from subject matter experts to determine the state of domestic and foreign hydrogen and fuel cell industries, the state-of-the-art, relevant policies, state activities, entrepreneurial activities, competing technologies and market activity. The HTAC published an annual report at the end of each calendar year that highlighted technical, market and policy developments both domestically and internationally. These reports were disseminated to leadership at DOE and published on the HTAC website, www.hydrogen.energy.gov/advisory_htac.html, for viewing by the public and other interested parties. HTAC also provided recommendations through letters to the Secretary including letters transmitting the annual report, as well as periodic reports on special topics.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Members are experts in their respective fields or representatives of entities including domestic industry, academia, professional societies, government agencies, Federal laboratories, previous advisory panels, and financial environmental and other appropriate organizations based on the Department's assessment of the technical and other qualifications of the Committee's members and the needs of the Committee.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee was administratively inactive and did not meet in FY 2024.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Hydrogen Technical and Fuel Cell Advisory Committee was established to advise the Secretary on the programs and activities under title VIII, Hydrogen, of the Energy Policy Act of 2005. Title VIII establishes the Hydrogen and Fuel Cell Program to (1) enable and promote comprehensive development, demonstration, and commercialization of hydrogen and fuel cell technology in partnership with industry; (2) to make critical public investments in building strong links to private industry, institutions of higher education, National Laboratories, and research institutions to expand innovation and industrial growth;(3) to build a mature hydrogen economy that creates fuel diversity in the massive transportation sector of the United States; (4) to sharply decrease the dependency of the United States on imported oil, eliminate most emissions from the transportation sector, and greatly enhance our energy security; and (5) to create, strengthen, and protect a sustainable national energy economy.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings are open.

21. Remarks
