20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Advisory Board advises the interagency National Council for the American Worker (Council) on the workforce policy of the United States. Its recommendations include steps to encourage the private sector and educational institutions to combat the skills crisis by investing in and increasing demand-driven education, training, and re-training, including through apprenticeships and work-based learning opportunities.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Advisory Board is composed of the Secretary of Commerce and the Advisor to the President overseeing the Office of Economic Initiatives, and not more than 25 members appointed by the President from among citizens outside the Federal Government, and includes individuals chosen to serve as representatives of the various sectors of the economy, including the private sector, employers, educational institutions, and States, to offer diverse perspectives on how the Federal Government can improve education, training, and re-training for American workers.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

There will be 4 estimated number of meetings per year.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Executive Order 13845 established two bodies in support of the Administration's policy and strategy related to the American Workforce: an interagency council and an advisory committee, the American Workforce Policy Advisory Board (Advisory Board). The Advisory Board shall advise the National Council for the American Worker on the workforce policy of the United States. Its recommendations shall include steps to encourage the private sector and educational institutions to combat the skills crisis by investing in and increasing demand-driven education, training, and re-training, including through apprenticeships and work-based learning opportunities.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not Applicable

21. Remarks

The committee was terminated due to the change in administration and the new administration did not want to continue the board. EO -

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

Number of Recommendations Comments

The AWPAB meets in session about four times a year. The Committee is broken up into subgroups which presents recommendations to the Committee each meeting and works to build consensus among members. The Committee reviews the recommendations and provides advice and feedback in a public forum. Once consensus is achieved through discussion, the Committee moves forward on making a plan to put into fruition.
