20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The President's Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities (PCPID) convenes meetings to explore ways to provide and improve services and support to citizens with intellectual disabilities and their families. The Committee, then, makes recommendations through an annual report to the President of the United States.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

PCPID is composed of 21 citizen members (capacity) appointed by the President and 13 ex officio members representing various Federal agencies. Citizen members include self-advocates, parents, professionals, and volunteers in the field of intellectual disabilities. Ex officio members include the U.S. Attorney General, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Labor, the Secretary of Health and Human Services, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, the Secretary of Transportation, the Secretary of Education, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation for National and Community Services, the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, the Chair of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and the Chair of the National Council on Disability.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

PCPID (full committee) traditionally meets two times a year. This could be virtual or in-person. Each meeting serves as a critical step in the production of the PCPID Annual Report to the President.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

PCPID is the only governmental committee dedicated solely to people with intellectual disabilities. The combination of perspectives on the Committee is an invaluable source for providing sound policy recommendations to the President.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All PCPID Meetings are open to the public.

21. Remarks

No Report to the President in 2022-2023 so there are no recommendations for 2022-2023.
