20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The board assesses the effectiveness of both schools in accomplishing their mission. The board inquires into the curricula, instruction, physical plant and equipment, administration, state of the student body, fiscal affairs and resources, and other matters relating to the operation of school programs. Before making an assignment, detail, or selection of an individual for the position of President of the Naval Postgraduate School, the Secretary of the Navy consults with the Committee.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Board membership shall be comprised of not more than 10 members who are eminent authorities in the fields of academia, business, national defense, the defense industry, and research and analysis.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated Number of Meetings per Year - 1

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The varied backgrounds of all board members provides the Secretary of the Navy with a level of insight and experience, with a degree of detachment and a civilian sense of responsibility which cannot be duplicated internally. The board advises the Secretary of the Navy and the two school presidents on naval graduate education programs. A vital and fundamental exchange of ideas occur at the meetings and a complete and independent evaluation of the school's established goals and mission is accomplished. Additionally, the BOA is required for both schools accreditation.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings are not closed to the public unless the Department of Defense determines that items on the planned agenda meet the closed meeting provisions of 5 U.S.C. § 552b(c). Pursuant to DoD policy closed meetings can only be authorized by the DoD Sponsor, who is the Secretary of the Navy or designee, and only after consultation with the appropriate General Counsel. A portion of the April 2013 meeting was closed to the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552b(c).

21. Remarks

While there is one (1) FTE associated with support of this committee, this represents two individuals, one General Schedule employee from the Naval Postgraduate School and one Administratively Determined employee from the Naval War College. This committee meets once a year, however in accordance with the committee charter, its two subcommittees meet twice per year. One Subcommittee meets on-site at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California; One Subcommittee meets on-site at the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island. Both Subcommittees meet again together at the annual Committee meeting in Washington, DC. Members travel from various places within the United States. All related costs to this Committee and its Subcommittees are captured in the Committee Costs section. There are no costs input into the Subcommittee Costs tab.

Cost Savings Comments

While we are not able to determine exact cost savings, the advice provided by this Board to the Presidents of the NPS, the NWC, and the Secretary of the Navy are significant.

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

Number of Recommendations Comments

1. The Board recommends a change to policy in order to afford wounded warriors and spouses access to postgraduate, resident education at NPS.2. Board recommends a change to policy to allow enlisted service members access to postgraduate, resident education at NPS.3. The Board recommends moving forward to fill all vacancies of the NPS/NWC BOA and its NWC subcommittee as soon as possible.4. The Board recommends NWC leadership summarize the scope of the space shortage on campus and identify the difficulties students experience as a result.5. The Board recommends the NPS leaders push back on the Inspector General's report's implication that there is little value in the relationship of the NPS with the Air Force Institute of Technology.6. The Board recommends and believes that the NPS continue to foster a strong research program, conducted in pursuit of appropriate and valid Navy (and naval concerns) educational purposes.7. Board asks Navy leadership to take steps to emphasize the importance of the NPS to the Navy and to the Nation in the wake of the Inspector General report upheaval.8. The Board recommends the Secretary of the Navy revise the method in which indirect rates are applied to reimbursable projects at NPS.9. The Board concurs with the nomination of Ronald Route as next President of NPS and recommends his appointment as soon as possible. 10. Board asks the Navy for full closure on the Inspector General's 2012 Report.11. Regarding JPME/Officer Development: Defense Planning Guidance asked an important question--are graduates intellectually prepared to contend with increasingly sophisticated adversaries? NWC certainly thinks carefully about this issue and is willing to be self-critical in measuring results. The board requests a qualitative answer to the question and feels there is more room for more innovative approaches to improving results in this area.12. The Board requests the Naval War College consider establishing a Faculty Council in order to enhance transparency of leaders' decisions and shared faculty/administrative governance. 13. There is presently no tenure process for faculty at the Naval War College. Request they consider establishing on in line with the American Association of University Professionals (AAUP).14. The Board recommends the Navy reinstate and properly define the meaning of the concept of Flagship Institution status for the Naval Postgraduate School and to the Naval War College. 15. Prohibited Source legislation is recommended to ensure resolution on any gray areas of use of NPS or NWC Foundation funds.16. The Board recommends the Navy support Normalization efforts to enhance civilian faculty quality at NWC. 17. Recommend the Work Acceptance Process (WAP) be finalized at NPS.18. The Board recommends the creation of, and emphasis on, a more formal exit interview program for departing faculty members at NPS.19. The Board recommends the Navy Department and Navy Leaders undertake a review of options to increase the number and proportion of competitive Navy officers who are afforded the opportunity to benefit from two or more periods of in-residence education during the course of a career in Navy's combat arms.20. Recommend strengthening and enhancing NPS President authorities. Specifically with regard to the faculty's ability to undertake creative work and projects that do not fit the traditional mold.21. Board recommends the Secretary of the Navy give permission to enable the NPS Foundation support to facilitate the Monterey Cybersecurity Institute (MCI).22. Approval of the MCI proposal in principle and promptly refine the proposal and establish required regulatory environment is recommended.23. Recommend NPS receive permission to receive gifts from the NPS Foundation up to $250,000.24. The board recommends that the Secretary of the Navy appoint a new NPS President by September 30, 2018 upon the retirement of the current President.25. The board requests the NPS hiring freeze be lifted in order that the school be able to hire additional and needed faculty.26. The board recommends that commensurate authorities be returned to the NPS President after the 2012 IG investigation turmoil. 27. The board recommends the Secretary of the Navy's prompt positive attention be given to the NPS President's Sailing Directions memorandum of 27 April 2018.28. BOA recommends all proposals in Sailing Directions be approved.29. Recommend the Navy promptly review the Center for Civil-Military Relations-NPS relationship.30. Request the Navy modify existing rules to strengthen the CCMR/NPS relationship.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?
