20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Council's purpose is to provide recommendations to the Federal Government, through the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture, regarding policies and endeavors that (a) benefit wildlife resources; (b) encourage partnership among the public; sporting conservation organizations; Federal, state, tribal, and territorial governments; and (c) benefit recreational hunting and recreational shooting sports.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Council representation is balanced in relation to its mission as specified in its charter. The members are senior-level representatives of their organizations and/or have extensive knowledge and experience within the hunting and wildlife conservation communities.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Council anticipates meeting approximately 2 times per year. At these meetings, members will discuss recommendations to put forward to both the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Because of their professional affiliations and experiences, the members of the Council are uniquely positioned to provide advice to to the Departments related to hunting, recreational shooting, and wildlife conservation. Members of the Council have years of experience as managers, advocates, and participants in the wildlife conservation and recreation field. There is no equivalent body of advisers empaneled to assist the Departments.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All meetings are open to the public.

21. Remarks

Narrative Description

The Hunting and Shooting Sports Conservation Council (HSSCC) helps support the Department's mission by providing advice and recommendations for implementing Secretarial Orders 3347 and 3356, as well as Executive Order 13443. These Orders prioritize work by Department of the Interior bureaus in creating, expanding, and maintaining hunting and recreational shooting opportunities on Federal lands and waters, as well as conservation benefits derived from these activities. The HSSCC is charged with making recommendations related to hunting and shooting sports that will expand opportunities, conservation efforts, and the economic benefits to the national and local economies. Increasing hunting and recreational shooting opportunities, and wildlife conservation are all priorities within the Interior Department.
