20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Foreign Affairs Policy Board provided the Secretary of State with advice, feedback, and perspectives from a diverse array of experts to advance the Department’s mission and help root American foreign policy in the needs and aspirations of the American people.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Board was comprised of no more than twenty-five members who have distinguished and diverse backgrounds in foreign policy and the domestic sources of strength for American diplomacy affairs. The group is bipartisan and representative across lines of race, ethnicity, geography, industry, and gender. The selection of membership is in coordination with the Board's Membership Balance Plan.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

It is anticipated that the Board will meet periodically throughout the year. Subcommittees and working groups will meet as appropriate for their assigned responsibilities.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The committee is necessary to supplement the advice and support the Secretary gets from the Department with a broad range of diverse outside perspectives on major international issues.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings that include discussions on sensitive, and often classified, topics and materials must be closed.

21. Remarks

This board was created to provide expertise to the Secretary of State on a range of critical foreign policy issues. No formal reports were produced for public distribution. Meetings were closed to the public due to the sensitive nature of discussions. Members of the Board have submitted materials for senior State Department officials eyes-only.
