20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The scope and objective of the committee is to examine the full spectrum of fruit and vegetable issues and provide suggestions and ideas to USDA on how it can tailor its programs to meet the industry's needs. The duties of the Committee are solely advisory. Agenda items and issues of importance are gathered by the Agricultural Marketing Service from Committee members in advance of each meeting. Following identified officials, experts and specialists speaking to the Committee during meetings, the Committee devises recommendations, and votes as a full Committee on recommendations to be forwarded to the Secretary of Agriculture. The Committee conducts votes on issues by voice vote. During two previous charters, Committee members have divided into 5 to 6-person working groups to do research on specified issues between meetings. A working group spokesperson then presents findings to the full Committee for its consideration during meetings.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership consists of up to 25 members who represent the fruit and vegetable industry: growers/shippers, wholesalers/receivers, retailers, state departments of agriculture, trade associations, processors, fresh-cut processors, importers, foodservice suppliers and brokers, each representing a balanced diversity of views regarding fruit and vegetable industry interests.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated number of meetings average 1-2 per fiscal year, with committee members split into working groups based upon subject matter determined by the full committee. These working groups meet approximately 2-4 times per year each via teleconference call.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This committee is essential in the view of the fruit and vegetable industry's importance to the nation's economy. The exchange of views and information between industry representatives and USDA should result in improved understanding of the impact of USDA programs on the fruit and vegetable industry and contribute to those programs effective and efficient administration. Advice of the committee is not available from other sources because no other source would provide a focal point and unified voice for an industry otherwise represented by numerous and small firms that are often overshadowed by larger interests.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A.

21. Remarks

In FY2018, the FVIAC did not meet due to the charter expiring and needing to appoint new board members. Cost associated to federal staff managing the committee.

Narrative Description

A goal of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) is to continually evolve to meet the changing needs of the U.S. produce industry. AMS services to the industry are related to price and market information (Market News), fresh and processed product grading and certification, food procurement for domestic schools and assistance organizations, marketing orders, generic promotion, and the administration of a fair-trade law (the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act). Hearing from the industry in a unified voice, that this Committee provides, enables AMS to adjust its user-fee services, which are mostly voluntary (in most cases not required to be used by industry members) for the best value by customers.

Outcome Comments

During a number of meetings throughout the tenure of the Committee, Committee
