20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The DTAG provides the Department, through studies and in consultations, specific recommendations on issues affecting exports of defense goods and services. These recommendations command the attention of key policymakers on defense trade issues, including Political-Military Affairs Bureau principals and the Under Secretary for Arms Control and International Security Affairs. U.S. defense firms are directly affected by the Department's decisions on trade policies and new innovations and revisions to the licensing procedures. Through DTAG, defense trade specialists provide the Department with their views on how to clarify policies and streamline licensing procedures.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

DTAG members are private sector defense trade specialists from U.S. defense companies, trade associations, law firms, policy institutions, and academia.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

DTAG meetings are called by the DFO following a request by the Chairman. There will be at least one meeting per fiscal year. DTAG provides insight and recommendations relevant to a variety of defense trade topics including technical data under the ITAR, Export Control Reform, treaty exemptions, common carrier definitions, and controlled unclassified information.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

DTAG is the only advisory committee which allows the Department to benefit from the advice of private sector defense trade specialists on how better to carry out the Department's statutory obligations under the Arms Export Control Act.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Although DTAG plenary meetings have traditionally been open; however, there may be circumstances where the Committee would potentially hold a closed or partially closed meeting when committee members are addressing topics and issues that affect security which directly with the Department. However, the sanitized findings of these potential closed meetings are always discussed and presented during the open plenary meetings, open to the public.

21. Remarks

Regarding the annual committee meeting, in FY25 The Defense Trade Advisory Group (DTAG) met in open session from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 04, 2024. This hybrid meeting was held in person at 1777 F Street NW, Washington, DC, with the option to attend virtually via Zoom. The virtual forum will open at 12:15 p.m. The membership of this advisory committee consists of private sector defense trade representatives, appointed by the Assistant Secretary of State for Political-Military Affairs, who advise the Department on policies, regulations, and technical issues affecting defense trade. After the meetings the minutes will be certified and posted on the PM/DDTC website.

Narrative Description

The Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC), in accordance with 22 U.S.C. 2778-2780 of the Arms Export Control Act (AECA) and the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) (22 CFR Parts 120-130), is charged with controlling the export and temporary import of defense articles and defense services covered by the United States Munitions List (USML). The Defense Trade Advisory Group (DTAG) provides a formal channel for regular consultation and coordination with U.S. private sector defense exporters and defense trade specialists on issues involving U.S. laws, policies, and regulations for munitions exports. The DTAG advises the Department on its support for and regulation of defense trade to help ensure that impediments to legitimate exports are reduced while the foreign policy and national security interests of the United States continue to be protected and advanced.

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

Number of Recommendations Comments

The meeting focused on current defense trade issues and future study topics. DDTC tasked DTAG to review relevant ITAR sections and DDTC guidelines to recommend ways to better organize and consolidate licensing requirements, with emphasis on standardizing structure and language, addressing re-delivery and delivery activities, post-delivery support, challenges for non-U.S. entities, and identifying inefficiencies. DDTC also tasked DTAG to assess and recommend improvements to the process and guidance for administrative changes (such as name/address changes) resulting from companies' internal decisions, aiming to enhance efficiency and reduce industry burdens.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?

10%

% of Recommendations Fully Implemented Comments

Action Comments

DTAG recommendations are typically incorporated into proposed rules and reform policies as appropriate. These recommendations contribute to improved service delivery of licenses via DECCS, such as publishing FAQs on DECCS, and the development of new products to help industry enhance compliance with AECA and ITAR, like Compliance Program Guidelines and Compliance Risk Matrix for industry and academia. Trust in Government is fostered through regular updates on policy, personnel, regulations, and other related matters from DDTTC senior leadership, delivered in a keynote address before DTAG presents their task findings in plenary meetings.

Is the Committee engaged in the review of applications for grants?
