20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

SIPPPRA requires commission members to have expertise in finance, economics, pay-for-performance, or program evaluation. The Commission will make recommendations to the Treasury regarding funding of social impact partnership grant agreements and feasibility study grants.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

NA- Statute dictates membership.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Meetings are held as needed to review applications for funding and make recommendations. In FY25, there were no meetings.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The committee will allow the federal government to benefit from the knowledge, financial expertise and Pay For Success expertise of the committee members appointed by Congressional leaders. Congress established the committee by statute.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings may be partially closed or closed for discussions of grant applications and/or discussion or deliberation of information not yet available to the general public.

21. Remarks

The Commission is a critical body for the SIPBRA program team to rely on for their advice and expertise.
