20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

Committee members provide viewpoints and share information relevant to the Department of State's formulation, coordination and oversight of foreign policy related to international postal and delivery services. The Committee may also make specific or general policy recommendations.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Approximately twenty-five percent full-time regular government employees, seventy-five percent representatives of particular interest groups comprising international mailers and providers of international delivery services.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

On average, meetings are held twice a year. The specific agenda items change meeting to meeting but are typically related to policy issues being considered in the Universal Postal Union. The Department of State considers the meetings to be relevant to its work, since they provide a venue to discuss the views and concerns of mailers, delivery service providers, and other stakeholders.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Required by specific statutory language found in Section 405 of the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PL 109-435)

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A

21. Remarks

This Advisory Committee produces no formal reports but serves as a vehicle to engage key stakeholders on relevant and timely international postal policy issues before the Department.

Number of Recommendations Comments

The Committee has produced 38 informal recommendations to date regarding U.S. policy towards international postal and delivery services that have been considered for adoption by the Department of State and other U.S. Government stakeholders. These include advice on issues taken up by the Universal Postal Union (UPU) in the context of the 2008, 2012, and 2016 UPU Congresses. These concerned advice on the formulation of the U.S.

Strategic Plan for the Universal Postal Union; six proposals submitted by the U.S. delegation to the 2008 and 2012 Congress and a proposal submitted by the U.S. delegation to the 2016 UPU Congress in Istanbul on establishing a principle of nondiscrimination in the customs treatment of mail.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?

39%

% of Recommendations Fully Implemented Comments

Some recommendations of the Committee were pursued at the UPU but not adopted by its bodies. Most recommendations, not requiring UPU action have been adopted.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Partially implemented by the agency?

3%

% of Recommendations Partially Implemented Comments

Recommendations of the Committee, adopted at its September, 2015, meeting on principles to guide U.S. engagement in the 2016 Universal Postal Congress were applied in so far as they were practicable and relevant to the proceedings. The U.S. proposal on the customs treatment of mail was rejected by the Istanbul Congress.
