20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

Annual meetings of the Board are held (1) in Natchitoches, Louisiana (location of the National Center for Preservation Technology and Training (NCPTT)) to provide opportunity for the Board to observe the progress of the Center staff in the development of Center programs and facilities which have been developed to serve historic preservation across the United States; or (2) in various other locations throughout the United States to provide opportunity for the Board to meet with preservation professionals to speak about the Center programs and how the programs might serve the field at large. 2023

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: I) The Board met in Natchitoches, Louisiana on August 16-17, 2023.

II) Reviewing competitive grant submissions and making recommendations for final award decisions by the Secretary's designee (Director, NPS). In FY 2023, the Center awarded $220,942.00 in grants for projects to develop or adapt techniques to preserve historical sites and cultural heritage. Twelve preservation technology and training grant applications across ten states were awarded: 1) APTI (Illinois), $20,000; 2) Cal Poly Humboldt (California), $20,000; 3) Louisiana State University (Louisiana), $20,000; 4) Louisiana State University (Louisiana), $20,000; 5) Notre Dame (Indiana), $20,000; 6) Oklahoma State University (Oklahoma), $19,975; 7) Florida A&M University (Florida), $19,582; 8) Coastal Carolina University (South Carolina), $14,939; 9) Repurpose Savannah (Georgia), $14,736; 10) Wichita State University (Kansas), $11,711; 11) Cornell (New York), $19,999; 12) NCPE (New York), $20,000.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership is as prescribed by the enabling legislation and is comprised of 13 members, as follows: (1) the Secretary of the Interior's designee; (2) six members appointed by the Secretary who represent appropriate Federal, State and local agencies, State and local historic preservation commissions, and other public and international organizations; and (3) six members appointed by the Secretary on the basis of outstanding professional qualifications who represent major organizations in the fields of archeology, architecture, conservation, curation, engineering, history, historic preservation, landscape architecture, planning, or preservation education.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Regular meetings of the Board are scheduled once a year in Natchitoches, Louisiana, where the National Center for Preservation and Technology is located, or at varying locations across the United States. The Board provides critical insight to the Secretary and the staff of the Center.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Preservation Technology and Training Board has been established by the Congress to (1) provide leadership, policy advice, and professional oversight to the National Center for Preservation Technology and Training, located at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana; (2) advise the Secretary of the Interior on priorities and the allocation of grants among the activities of the Center; and (3) submit an annual report to the President and the Congress. There is no parallel advisory committee with the balance of expertise and representation available to advise the Secretary of the Interior on matters of preservation technology and related training issues.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All meetings are open.

21. Remarks

The Board met in Natchitoches, Louisiana on August 16-17, 2023.

Narrative Description

Created by Public Law 102-575 in 1992, the purpose of the Board is to provide leadership, policy advice, and professional oversight to the National Center for Preservation Technology and Training located at Northwestern State University of Louisiana in Natchitoches, Louisiana. A unit of the National Park Service, the Center was created by the 1992 Amendments to the National Historic Preservation Act to coordinate and promote preservation research, distribute information, and provide training about preservation skills and technologies. Other responsibilities of the Board include advising the Secretary on priorities and the allocation of grants among the activities of the Center and submitting an annual report to the President and the Congress.
