20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) Advisory Board (Board) provides advice and counsel to the Secretary and the designated bond authority (DBA) as to the most effective and efficient means of implementing construction financing on the campuses of HBCUs and to advise Congress regarding the progress made in implementing the program.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The membership of the Board, as required by legislation, is composed of 11 individuals, including three public and three private HBCU presidents, the executive director of the White House Initiative on Historically Black Colleges and Universities, presidents of three professional organizations concerned with the education of black Americans, and the Secretary or Secretary's designee. The group therefore provides a broad and balanced view of the needs of HBCUs and the ways that the HBCU Capital Financing Program can be enhanced.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Board meets as needed to assist and provide insight to the Department of Education's HBCU Capital Financing Program. The Board is required by law to meet twice per year. The Board met three times in FY2018 .

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Board provides a direct link with HBCUs who are the constituents of the HBCU Capital Financing Program and provides legislative and administrative advice to the program. The Board provides a blending of HBCU concerns, expertise in higher education, and knowledge of the financial skills that are not available in other existing groups.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A

21. Remarks

The Board is authorized by Title III, Part D, Section 347 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. Members may continue to serve until a successor is appointed.
