20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Council has established four subcommittees to provide assistance in carrying out its duties. The subcommittees focus on specific topics, issues, and concerns about which to deliberate. Recommendations made by the subcommittees are presented to the Council and to be discussed in an open public forum. The Council makes final determination on the recommendations, which are then presented to the Secretary of HHS through the ASH, for review and consideration.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Selected candidates are appointed to the Council by the Secretary of HHS, in consultation with the White House. Committee members are prominent community leaders with particular expertise in, or knowledge of, matters concerning HIV and AIDS, public health, global health, philanthropy, marketing or business, as well as other national leaders held in high esteem from other sectors of society. FACA stipulates that agencies develop a fairly balanced membership plan that takes into consideration a cross-section of those directly affected, interested, and qualified, as appropriate, to the nature and functions of the advisory committee. To comply with the FACA guidelines, the Department makes an effort to ensure that committee memberships demonstrate a broad representation of geographic areas, gender, race, ethnicity, and disability.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Council generally meets, at a minimum, three times per fiscal year, depending on the availability of funds to support the meeting.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

There is no other similar group that can provide the service and leadership that has become associated with the Council.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A

21. Remarks

On December 27, 2017, all members of the PACHA received letters informing them that their appointment had been terminated. The Department is actively working to fill the vacancies. Since PACHA did not have members after December 27, 2017, the Council did not have a full Council meeting throughout Fiscal Year 2018. The Council's last meeting prior to December 2017 was on August 30, 2017 and the recommendations from that meeting is accounted for in the Fiscal Year 2017 report.
