20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

This committee draws on the expertise of its members to provide advice and make recommendations to the Director, Earth Science Division, Science Mission Directorate, NASA Headquarters, on Earth science programs, policies, plans and priorities.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Director, Earth Science Division, ensures a balanced representation in terms of points of the view represented and the functions to be performed.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The committee is expected to meet two to three times per year.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Consensus scientific advice from outside experts is essential to support NASA Earth science program planning. NASA is the Federal agency charged with conducting space-based Earth science research.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not Applicable
