20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The function of the UAG shall be to ensure that the interests of industry, non-Federal entities, and other persons involved in aeronautical and space activities are adequately represented by the National Space Council.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The UAG membership is composed of representatives of industry, other non-Federal entities, and other recognizable groups of persons involved in aeronautical and space activities, as well as Special Government Employees who may be appointed as subject matter experts.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The UAG shall meet as frequently as needed, subject to the advance approval of the UAG Designated Federal Officer (DFO). It is estimated that the UAG will meet three times each year. The UAG shall from time to time, but not less than once per year, meet with the National Space Council. Special meetings of the UAG may be required and supported as needed.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The UAG is a unique body of nationally-recognized aerospace industry experts and leaders.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not Applicable

21. Remarks

The National Space Council Users' Advisory Group (UAG) is a FACA advisory committee chartered by NASA on December 6, 2017; the UAG charter was renewed by NASA on December 4, 2019. NASA was requested by the White House to sponsor and manage the day-to-day operations of this committee. This committee was established pursuant to the NASA Authorization Act of 1991 (Public Law 101-611, Section 121), and Executive Order 13803, Section 6 ("Reviving the National Space Council") signed by the President on June 30, 2017. As such, the UAG is a non-discretionary statutory Federal advisory committee, and has no termination date.

Narrative Description

The purpose of the National Space Council Users' Advisory Group (UAG) is to ensure that the interests of industry, other non-Federal entities, and other persons involved in aeronautical and space activities are adequately represented to the National Space

Council. The UAG will provide advice and recommendations to the National Space Council rather than NASA directly. Therefore the Space Council will provide feedback as appropriate. Note: In the previous FY 2018 ACR, the appointment term listed for UAG member B. Aldrin was not accurate; his appointment term listed in this FY 2019 ACR is accurate. In addition, in the previous FY 2018 ACR, UAG member D. Cheng was not listed; he is listed in this FY 2019 ACR.
