20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The purpose of the Community Development Advisory Board is to advise the Director of the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund (CDFI Fund) on its policies, activities and programs. This purpose is primarily accomplished through open meetings where the CDFI Fund informs the Advisory Board of its recent activities and accomplishments as well as presents pending matters regarding which Advisory Board members have expertise and interest. Through this informed dialogue, the Advisory Board provides the CDFI Fund with valued input and feedback for the CDFI Fund to consider as it moves forward.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership of the Community Development Advisory Board is defined by statute. The 15 member Advisory Board is composed of public representatives and private citizens; specifically, the Secretary/Administrator, or his or her designee, from the following Department/Agencies: Agriculture, Commerce, Housing and Urban Development; Interior; Treasury; and the Small Business Administration. In addition, nine private citizens appointed by the President/White House including: two individuals who are officers of existing community development financial institutions; two individuals who are officers of insured depository institutions; two individuals who are officers of national consumer or public interest organizations; two individuals who have expertise in community development; and One individual who has personal experience and specialized expertise in the unique lending and community development issues confronted by Indian tribes on Indian reservations.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Per its authorizing statute, the Community Development Advisory Board must meet at least annually. These meetings are very relevant in that they provide a forum for the Advisory Board to accomplish its purpose - to advise the Director of the CDFI Fund on its policies, activities and programs. The members of the Advisory Board are instrumental in providing advice and guidance to the Director of the CDFI Fund regarding enhancements and refinements to the CDFI Fund's policies, activities and programs.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Community Development Advisory Board provides a unique opportunity to gather private citizens and representatives of public agencies to share their insight and expertise regarding issues facing the community development finance field and, in particular, the design, operation and management of the roles, policies, programs and activities of the CDFI Fund. Thus, the Advisory Board brings together a wealth of perspective, expertise and experience. The input and feedback of the Advisory Board has been valuable to the CDFI Fund in the implementation of its programs and in understanding the effect of its policies and activities on its constituents, within the field of community development finance, and most importantly on the people and distressed communities it serves.

Cost Savings Comments

The recommendations and advice provided by the Advisory Board to the CDFI Fund have been highly beneficial but to quantify that through cost savings has been extremely challenging. This is due to the fact that the majority of the recommendations translate to complex efforts that span multiple fiscal years.

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

Number of Recommendations Comments

The Community Development Advisory Board created a Subcommittee in fiscal year 2009 to present information to the full board so that the full board could then advise the CDFI Fund on policy and program recommendations related to the impact of the global financial crisis on the institutions that the CDFI Fund supports (e.g., CDFIs, CDEs and BEA-eligible financial institutions) and the communities they serve. The Subcommittee produced seven (7) recommendations that the full board approved and presented to the CDFI Fund Director. In fiscal year 2015, the Community Development Advisory Board created two Subcommittees - a Strategy Subcommittee and a Native Subcommittee. The Strategy Subcommittee conducted conference calls largely focused on process and utilized the open meetings of the full board to conduct substantive work. The Native Subcommittee was created to develop an Engagement Plan for the Access to Capital and Credit in Native Communities Report that was released in May 2016. On January 30, 2017, the Native Subcommittee presented the Engagement Plan to the full board which approved it and presented to the CDFI Fund Director.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Fully Implemented Comments

The CDFI Fund continues to actively work on all of the recommendations made by the Community Development Advisory Board. It should be noted that some of the recommendations will cross several fiscal years before being completed and involve other agencies or other offices within Treasury.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Partially implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Partially Implemented Comments

The CDFI Fund continues to actively work on all of the recommendations made by the Community Development Advisory Board. It should be noted that some of the recommendations will cross several fiscal years before being completed and involve other agencies or offices within Treasury.

Does the agency provide the committee with feedback regarding actions taken to implement recommendations or advice offered?

Yes No Not Applicable

Agency Feedback Comments

The CDFI Fund provides feedback directly to the board members at each meeting of the Community Development Advisory Board. In addition, the CDFI Fund sends various other communications to its constituents, including its board members, keeping them informed of the activities of the CDFI Fund throughout the fiscal year. These communications include, but are not limited to, e-mailed updates, press releases, etc.
