20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Council shall serve MCC in a solely advisory capacity and provide insight regarding innovations in technology, infrastructure and finance; perceived risks and opportunities in MCC partner countries; new financing mechanisms for developing country contexts; and shared value approaches. The Council will provide a platform for systematic engagement with the private sector and contribute to MCC’s mission – of advancing America’s economic and strategic interests through results focused foreign assistance.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Candidate identification will come from various sources, including through publication of a Federal Register notice soliciting nominations; recommendations from senior career and political officials at MCC; recommendations from industry and government sources and outreach to relevant trade organizations and associations. MCC will make final determinations after vetting nominees and considering input from MCC senior staff and FACA legal advisors. Should vacancies occur, MCC may initiate the candidate identification process specified above to solicit candidates to fill the vacancy or choose to leave the seat vacant until the next formal candidate identification process commences. Advisory Council members serve from appointment for the duration of the Charter of the Council. Members may be reappointed to a second and final term, consecutively or nonconsecutively, provided that the member proves to work effectively on the Committee and his/her knowledge and advice are still needed.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated number of meetings per year - 2

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Council shall serve MCC in a solely advisory capacity concerning innovations, expertise, sustainable business models, shared value approaches, and technologies within the business community and private sector that could benefit

MCC partner countries and contribute to the objectives of MCC investments.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

Number of Recommendations Comments
200 Recommendations were shared in FY26 by the Council members via written comments and discussion. The decreased number of recommendations were due to the pause in activities due to the foreign assistance review process.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Fully Implemented Comments
Of those recommendations that have been suggested by the Council, approximately 15% have been adopted by MCC or have been fully implemented. These recommendations have come in the form of Compact-specific advice, broader advice regarding MCC outreach to the private sector and strategic advice as MCC engages with partner countries around the world and seeks to remain on the cutting edge of international development.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Partially implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Partially Implemented Comments
Approximately an additional 15% of recommendations that have been provided by the MCC Advisory Council have been partially implemented. These recommendations fall in similar categories as those noted above (and are detailed in the same documents) but may be more difficult to implement or take more time to do so.

Does the agency provide the committee with feedback regarding actions taken to implement recommendations or advice offered?
Yes ☑ No ☐ Not Applicable ☐

Agency Feedback Comments
The agency offers feedback through various channels. Firstly, it is conveyed through PowerPoint presentations and written reports detailing insights on specific countries or the challenges/opportunities within a Compact. Secondly, during meetings, there is an organic Q&A session where feedback is exchanged. In all instances, the feedback is deliberated upon in the subsequent Council meeting, where MCC comments on the recommendations utilized to enhance Compact/Threshold development, implementation, or other priority areas of the MCC. Meeting minutes are then made publicly available on the MCC's website for transparency and accountability.
