20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee meets on a quarterly basis to provide advice on government financing. It draws on the experience of its members and the resources of the members' firms. The Committee submits a report to the Secretary outlining the views of the financial community on the state of the economy, the Committee's views on how to best meet the government's financing needs, and answers to questions posed by Treasury officials.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Committee is composed of participants that are subject matter experts in the government securities markets including institutional investors and security dealers.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee meets at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, generally immediately prior to each of the Treasury's mid-calendar quarter refinancing operations. Committee reports are released to the public the morning after each meeting.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Committee is unique in its expertise in the government securities market.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

The committee meetings are closed to the public under 5 USC 552b c (9) (A). Committee discussion could lead to undue speculation in the securities markets if held in public.

Narrative Description

The Committee provides Treasury with expert advice on the consequences of Treasury's financing decisions on financial markets. The committee's composition, of both financial intermediaries and large investors, ensures that Treasury receives a wide range of views on how it should best meet its objective of lowest cost financing over time.
