20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee plans to accomplish its purpose through a minimum of two annual meetings and working sessions of sub-committees in between the full committee meetings. The meetings may occur in person and/or through virtual communications platforms.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Committee is reviewed in totality for balance with regard to geographic location, gender, and experience in government, non-governmental organizations, and private industry. A balanced committee is characterized by the inclusion of the necessary knowledge, insight, and experience in anti-child sex trafficking efforts and the intersection of trafficking and public health and criminal justice concerns.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee is required to meet at minimum two times per year.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Committee provides a unique blend of perspectives from representational members, including two governors, survivors of trafficking, and subject matter experts in health, human service, criminal justice, and private sectors.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

There have been no closed or partially closed meetings during the reporting period.

21. Remarks

The Committee is terminating on January 18, 2022 in accordance with the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act of 2014 (P.L. 113-183).
