20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Council was intended to provide the Secretary of Health and Human Services with advice and guidance on policies and regulations related to strategies for best implementing the CLASS program. However, the decision has been reached to not implement the CLASS program, and as such, the CLASS Independence Advisory Council will not be convened.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

According to the statute, members were to be representatives of individuals who participate or are likely to participate in the CLASS program, and shall include representatives of older and younger workers, individuals with disabilities, family caregivers of individuals who require services and supports to maintain their independence at home or in another residential setting of their choice in the community, individuals with expertise in long-term care or disability insurance, actuarial science, economics, and other relevant disciplines, as determined by the Secretary. However, the CLASS program will not be implemented, and as such, the CLASS Independence Advisory Council will not be convened.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The CLASS program will not be implemented, and as such, the CLASS Independence Advisory Council will not be convened.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The CLASS program will not be implemented, and as such, the CLASS Independence Advisory Council will not be convened.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?
