20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The committee provides perspective and advice to the National Science Foundation on the agency's plans and programmatic strategies to develop and support a state-of-the-art cyberinfrastructure that enables significant advances in fields of science and engineering. Advise the NSF on program content, overall program balance, and other aspects of program performance. Advise as to the impact of overall NSF-wide policies on the science and engineering community.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Members will represent a range of scientific and engineering fields supported by NSF, and will be appointed with terms of three to five years. Every effort will be made to achieve a diverse representation, including members from underrepresented groups, academic and private sector organizations, as well as different geographic regions of the U.S.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

2 recurring meetings biannually and 1 additional Committee of Visitors review meeting quadrennially.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The committee will provide important contact with the science and engineering community impacted by the agency's cyberinfrastructure portfolio. The advice sought by the agency is not available from other sources.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A
