20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee provides advice and recommendations to the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) through the Assistant Secretary for U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) on matters concerning ICE's family residential centers as it relates to primary education, immigration law, physical and mental health, trauma-informed services, family and youth services, detention management, and detention reform.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The ACFRC will have up to 15 members who are appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Secretary of DHS. To ensure a diverse membership and a variety of perspectives are represented, membership shall consist of experts and advocates as follow: A. Up to 10 members from the following fields, with at least one representative from each: primary education, immigration law, physical and mental health, trauma-informed services, family and youth services, detention management, and detention reform. Members are appointed to represent their respective academic institution or organization and are not Special Government Employees (SGEs) as defined in Title 18, United States Code, section 202(a). To the extent possible, each of the interests listed shall be represented on the Committee. B. Other such individuals as the Secretary determines to be appropriate. The appropriate membership designation for each member in this category will be determined at the time of appointment by Agency ethics officials.
