20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee's objective was to provide the Commission with advice on its rules, regulations and policies, with regard to its mission of protecting investors, maintaining fair, orderly and efficient markets, and facilitating capital formation, as they relate to:(1) capital raising by emerging, privately-held small businesses and smaller public companies through securities offerings; (2) trading in the securities of emerging and smaller public companies; and (3) public reporting and corporate governance requirements of emerging and smaller public companies.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

As explained in more detail in the Membership Balance Plan, the representative members of the Committee express the perspectives of emerging and smaller public companies engaging in private and limited securities offerings and/or considering initial public offerings and their professional advisers and investors, as well as the perspectives of state and federal securities regulators. Other balance factors include diversity of background, geography, industry and company size. The committee also contains voting and non-voting members. The non-voting members are included to express the perspectives of state and federal government regulators of companies and participants in the marketplace for the securities of emerging and smaller public companies.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 2017. The Committee was terminated on September 24, 2017.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The SEC's Advisory Committee on Small and Emerging Companies was necessary to provide the Commission with the views of emerging privately held companies and smaller held companies (companies with less than $250 million in public market capitalization) as they relate to the Commission's rules, regulations and policies on capital raising by emerging companies and smaller public companies; trading in the securities of emerging companies and smaller public companies; and public reporting and corporate governance requirements of emerging companies and smaller public companies. On December 16, 2016, P.L. 114-284 became law. This legislation created a permanent Small Business Capital Formation Advisory Committee which shall provide advice to the SEC.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?
