20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The committee will accomplish its purpose by creating an effective vehicle for gathering input and obtaining advice from a broad range of stakeholders. The Secretary would then be able to provide advice on developing and coordinating a comprehensive strategic response to minority business concerns across the Nation.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Members shall be recognized leaders in their respective fields of endeavor and shall possess the necessary knowledge and experience to provide advice and recommendaions on a broad range of policy issues that impact the ability of MBEs to participate successfully in the domestic and global marketplace. NACMBE shall have a balanced membership reflecting a diversity of industries, ethnic backgrounds and geographical regions.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Meetings may occur as frequently as needed.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The committee is necessary to address the issues related to the growth of minority business enterprise particularly in the areas of job creation and expansion, the globalization of the MBE community, or the migration of MBEs into the aforementioned industries.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings will be open unless the Department determines that a meeting or portion of a meeting may be closed to the public in accordance with subsection (c) of section 552b of Title 5, United States Code.

21. Remarks

Subcommittee costs were included as part of the Budget for the parent committee.

Designated Federal Officer

Ivonne Cunarro Sr. Program Manager
