20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

(A) Provides advice to the Secretary on the development and implementation of programs under Subtitle J of the Energy Policy Act, Public Law No. 109-58, related to ultra-deepwater natural gas and other petroleum resources; and (B) provide to the Secretary written comments regarding the draft annual plan that is required by Section 999B(e) of the Energy Policy Act. The duties of this Committee are solely advisory in nature. On December 19, 2008, the committee voted to establish two standing subcommittees, the Ultra-Deepwater Research and Development Portfolio Subcommittee, and the Ultra-Deepwater Research and Development Process Subcommittee. The purpose of these two subcommittees is to examine more closely and advise the committee on issues related to the depth and breadth of the portfolio of projects that comprise the Ultra-Deepwater Program, and to examine the processes used to award projects after they have been selected.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership requirements are stated in Sec. 999D(a)(2): individuals with extensive research experience or operational knowledge of offshore natural gas and other petroleum exploration and production; individuals broadly representative of the affected interests in ultra-deepwater natural gas and other petroleum production, including interest in environmental protection and safe operations.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee held 2 meetings to develop findings and recommendations for the 2014 Annual Plan.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

According to the EPOA on August 8, 2005, the Secretary of Energy is to create this advisory committee to administer research, development, demonstration, and commercial activities related to ultra-deepwater and unconventional onshore natural gas and other petroleum resources.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not applicable

21. Remarks

The Bipartisan Budget Act of 2013 repealed Subtitle J of the Energy Policy Act of 2005, which established this committee. Thus, it was terminated.
