20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

ACTPN was established by Congress by 1974 Trade Act to provide overall policy advice on U.S.

negotiating objectives and bargaining positions prior to entering into trade agreement and/or other matters regarding trade policy.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The ACTPN is composed of not more than 45 members representing a broad of economic interest including senior level representatives of industry, academia, agriculture, labor, environment, small business, state and local officials, services, retailers and consumer interests.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Meetings are held biannually to ensure regular, timely advice on trade policy negotiations, implementation, enforcement and related issues.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Congress mandated that the Administration seek private sector advice in the negotiation and implementation of trade agreements and in trade policy formulation, implementation and enforcement process. It required the establishment of the ACTPN and authorized the remainder of the private sector advisory committee system in Section 135 of the 1974 Trade Act, as amended.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

In order to receive the most informed advice possible, the advisory committee members are regularly briefed on U.S. strategies and bargaining positions (information which is of a sensitive nature).
