20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The committee will include a wide cross representation of industry representatives and will also include subject matter experts to provide objective scientific perspectives. The committee will be presented an agenda that is also published on the committee website to focus the committee on the issues that need discussion. No decision or recommendation can be voted upon unless a quorum of nine committee members is present. When a decision or recommendation of the DIAC is required, the Chairman will request a motion for a vote. Any member, including the Chairman, may make a motion for a vote. A second after a proper motion will be required to bring any issue to vote. A decision or recommendation will be considered passed if it a majority of the members present vote in favor of the motion.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Members of the DIAC are appointed by the Secretary for a term of 2-years. Members will be selected from a cross section of the dairy industry representing: producers and producer organizations, processors and processor organizations, handlers, academia, retailers, consumers, and state agencies involved in organic and non-organic dairy at the local, regional, national and international levels.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The DIAC will meet as required. Meetings will be called by the Designated Federal Official (DFO) in consultation with the Chairman according to the following considerations: Agenda: The DFO will approve the agenda for all meetings. USDA will distribute the agenda to the members prior to each meeting and will publish an outline of the agenda on the DIAC website. USDA will publish a notice of the public meeting in the Federal Register at least 15 days prior to a DIAC meeting. Items for the agenda may be submitted to the DFO and/or the Chairman by any member of the DIAC. Items may also be suggested by non-members, including members of the public.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This committee is in the public's interest in view of the dairy industry's importance to the nation's economy. The exchange of views and information between industry representatives and USDA should result in improved understanding of the impact of USDA programs on the dairy industry and contribute to those programs' effective and efficient administration.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All meetings of the DIAC will be open to the public.

All materials brought before, or presented to, the DIAC during the conduct of a meeting will be available to the public through the DIAC website.

21. Remarks

All committee meeting minutes are available on the committee website: www.fsa.usda.gov/diac.

The committee has completed its final report and it can be found on the committee website:

www.fsa.usda.gov/diac This committee will naturally terminate upon expiration of the charter.
