20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The committee will solicit information and ideas from across the country and from all sectors of our economy about the functioning of the economy, the condition of the financial and banking system, and the prosperity of the American people and of American industry that can serve to inform the decisionmaking of the President, and, with respect to matters deemed appropriate by the President, provide information and recommendations to any other agency with responsibilities related to the economy or financial markets or to the National Economic Council.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The PERAB consists of not more than 17 members serving two-year terms, appointed by the President, from among individuals not employed by the Federal Government. In selecting individuals for appointment to the PERAB, appropriate consideration was given to individuals with backgrounds from various sectors of the economy. Each individual member of the PERAB serves either as a representative of his or her industry, trade group, or other organization or group, or as a special government employee. The composition of the PERAB reflects a diverse set of perspectives from across the country.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

It is estimated that the PERAB will meet at least quarterly; however, the PERAB shall meet at regular intervals as necessary to carry out its duties.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

To enhance the strength and competitiveness of the Nation's economy and the prosperity of the American people by ensuring the availability of independent, nonpartisan information, analysis, and advice to the President as he formulates and implements his plans for economic recovery.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A

21. Remarks

EO 13501 revoked by EO 13564 "President's Council on Jobs and Competitiveness"
