20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee offered recommendations on issues agreed upon by the Committee or identified by the DFO that were related to the consideration of democracy promotion in the formulation and implementation of U.S. foreign policy and foreign assistance. The Committee provided these recommendations to the Secretary of State, the Director of Foreign Assistance, the Under Secretary for Democracy and Global Affairs, and the Assistant Secretary for Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The former members of the Committee included former U.S. government officials, not-for-profit non-governmental organizations, public policy organizations, academic institutions, and other experts on foreign policy or development issues related to democracy promotion. The composition of the Committee was balanced in terms of the points of view represented.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The committee did not meet during the FY 2010 year.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

An advisory committee is an important mechanism to provide the advice and counsel necessary to increase the impact of U.S. policy and development assistance with respect to democracy promotion. The purpose of the Committee was to provide a formal channel for consultation with non-government individuals and groups with expertise in the promotion of democracy. The Committee advised the Secretary of State and the Administrator of the Agency for International Development on efforts to promote democracy and democratic transition in connection with the formulation and implementation of U.S. foreign policy and foreign assistance.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

NA The committee was terminated. No meetings were held during 2010.

21. Remarks

This committee was terminated in 2010 and as a result had no activities during this reporting period.

Designated Federal Officer

Lisa G. Sherman DFO

Narrative Description

A key element of U.S. National Security Strategy is to seek and support democratic movements and institutions in every nation and culture. The U.S. foreign policy aims to help create a world of democratic, well-governed states that can meet the needs of their citizens and conduct themselves responsibly in the international system. This Advisory Committee advises the Secretary of State and the Administrator of the Agency for International Development on efforts to promote democracy and democratic transition in connection with the formulation and implementation of U.S. foreign policy and foreign assistance.
