20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

In accordance with Title XV of Public Law 108-136, the Commission shall carry out a study of the benefits under the laws of the United States that are provided to compensate and assist veterans and their survivors for disabilities and deaths attributable to military service. The Commission shall produce a report on the study. The Commission's study shall be a comprehensive evaluation and assessment of benefits provided under current federal laws to compensate veterans and their survivors for disability or death attributable to military service. In carrying out the study, the Commission shall make recommendations concerning the appropriateness of such benefits under existing laws, the appropriateness of the level of such benefits, and the appropriate standard or standards for determining whether a veteran's disability or death should be compensated. The Commission shall also consult with the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences with respect to the medical aspects of contemporary disability compensation policies.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Commission is composed of 13 members appointed by the President and by the leaders of the Senate and House of Representatives. Of the 13 total members, not less than 7 shall be veterans who were awarded any of the following decorations: the Medal of Honor, the Distinguished Service Cross, the Navy Cross, the Air Force Cross, and the Silver Star. Members of the Commission are appointed for the life of the Commission.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

There were no meetings in this fiscal year as the Commission completed its work and shut down its operations.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Commission is directed to submit its final report to the President and Congress. The Commission may hold hearings, take testimony, and receive any evidence it considers advisable to carry out its purposes. The Commission may also secure from any federal department or agency such information as it considers necessary to carry out its purposes.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Commission meetings are open to the public.
