20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Advisory Committee (AC) will provide review and comment, as requested by the Policy Committee, as the Policy Committee develops the substance, emphasis, and focus of the 2005 White House Conference on Aging (WHCoA). The AC members may recommend new issues or reconfiguration of issues already put forward and have recommendations for WHCoA speakers and panelists.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Representation is from public agencies and private nonprofit organizations, as appropriate. The Older Americans Act Amendments of 2000 (Public Law 106-501, November 2000) requires that Advisory Committee members shall be composed of professionals and public members, and include individuals from low-income families and minority groups. A majority of the public members shall be 55 years of age or older and individuals who are Native Americans. In addition, Advisory Committee members, as a group, will represent the broad range of issue areas associated with aging and planning for the future. Specifically, the Advisory Committee members will be experts in the various fields of aging as well as policymakers focused on the wave of baby boomer retirements; in addition, they collectively will have expertise in the areas of medical care, transportation, housing, Medicare, Social Security solvency, existing services for the aging, and the marketplace of aging.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Since the members were sworn in on June 14,

2005, the Advisory Committee has met three times in Fiscal Year 2005, and twice in 2006

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Older Americans Act Amendments of 2000 (Public Law 106-501, November 2000) directs the President to establish an Advisory Committee to the White House Conference on Aging, which must be convened no later than December 31, 2005. Representation is from public agencies and private nonprofit organizations, as appropriate.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings have been closed in Fiscal Year 2005 and 2006 because the topics of discussion have been organizational and administrative in nature.
