20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The scope and objectives are to provide advice and recommendations on a broad range of issues dealing with the delivery of services by the FDIC, its corporate infrastructure, and policy initiatives in the areas of deposit insurance, supervision of financial institutions, resolutions and management of failing and failed institutions and other issues impacting the financial services industry. The duties and responsibilities of the committee will be to provide advice and recommendations on issues impacting the banking industry which in turn will help the FDIC to identify and prioritize issues of concern in advance of problems which could adversely affect the insurance funds or the effective functioning of the FDIC. The Committee will also explore policy options for changes in statutes, regulations, or supervisory practices or procedures that will better secure the public policy goals of financial institution regulation and maintain a safe, competitive, and innovative banking system.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Members will be appointed that can effectively represent the varied and diverse interests affected by the range of issues to be considered. The Committee's membership may include, among others, representatives from academia, financial institutions, financial services industry, private industry, consumer or public interest groups, state supervisory authorities, or others impacted by banking-related and operational issues.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated Number of Meetings per Year - 2 No meetings in FY 2006

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This committee is essential due to the increasing complexities and challenges facing the United States banking and financial services industry through changing technologies, changing economic conditions and trends domestically and internationally, globalization of financial markets, and various social factors. The Committee will provide a forum for the exchange of views through discussion and debate on current and emerging issues facing the FDIC and the nation's banking system. Members, who will not be from the Federal government, will provide guidance and valuable information and perspectives that are not generally available through other sources within the FDIC or the Federal government.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?
