Narrative Description

The Defense Acquisition Performance Assessment Project, directed by the Acting Deputy Secretary of Defense, will provide the Secretary of Defense and the 2006 Quadrennial Defense Review with recommendations on how the Department of Defense can improve the performance of the Defense acquisition system for major programs, and a comprehensive and executable implementation plan to institutionalize these recommendations. Mandate for Success "... I am authorizing an integrated acquisition assessment to consider every aspect of acquisition, including requirements, organization, legal foundations ...decision methodology, oversight, checks and balances — every aspect... The output... will be a recommended acquisition structure and processes with clear alignment of responsibility, authority and accountability. Simplicity is desirable... restructuring acquisition is critical and essential." Gordon England, Acting Deputy Secretary of Defense, 7 June 2005
