20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Advisory Commission gains knowledge of Park issues, discusses issues and presents Park management with recommendations. There are frequent field trips to show members concerns, progress, etc. FY 2005 - The Advisory Commission's purpose, to complete the General Management Plan, is successfully done. No additional meetings are required.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership of the advisory commission is as prescribed in the enabling legislation, consisting of no more than 15 members to include (a) an elected official for each County within which any part of the park is located; (b) a representative of the owners of private properties located within or immediately adjacent of the park; and (c) other members representing persons actively engaged in grazing and range management, mineral exploration and development, and persons with expertise in relevant fields, including geology, biology, ecology, law enforcement, and the protection and management of national park resources and values. A variety of interests are represented, including mining, grazing, conservation, recreation, concession, Native American, and local government.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Commission will meet approximately two times a year on a regular basis and at such other times as the DFO may direct. The meetings provide a forum for dissemination and exchange of relevant information about Death Valley National Park's mission, direction, issues, etc., in order to make knowledgeable recommendations to management.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Advisory Commission was mandated by California Desert Protection Act of 1994. The Advisory Commission is to advise the Secretary of the Interior concerning the development and implementation of a new or revised comprehensive management plan for Death Valley National Park.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

No meetings have been closed.
