20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

Meetings were previously held to select small business award winners and to provide advice and counsel to office director and agency regarding program activity.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Committee is made up of small business owners, bankers, other professionals, and other government employees representing a broad spectrum of views and ideas.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The committee's last meeting was held in FY 2000 -- no meetings were held in FY 2001, 2002, 2003. While the committee has been worthwhile in the past, at this time, the District is facing more immediate concerns and disolution of the committe is being requested. The committee was terminated on May 3, 2004.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

In recent years, the committee's only function has been to help select the Small Business Person of the Year. Committee is no longer necessary.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

The meetings held to select small business award winners cannot be open to the public due to financial and other personal information contained in the nomination packages.

21. Remarks

The Advisory Council appears to have outlived its usefulness and consideration is being given to its termination.

Designated Federal Officer

Jack E. Wright District Director
