20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Pittsburgh District office of SBA has determined how the Advisory Council will be most beneficial in assisting us in outreach and marketing activities that involve market penetration to under-served areas. A major focus as agreed by the Council is to increase the awareness of SBA in the total small business community and to enhance all lines of communication.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Pittsburgh District Office's Advisory Council is a diverse group geographically and represents the entire small business community. It includes small business owners, bankers, SBDCs, Congressional Representation, economic development organizations, SCORE, Chambers of Commerce, and other special interest groups.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The committee was terminated on May 3, 2004.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Representation of the Council interacts directly with the small business community. The membership consists of key resource people in the local community that serve as the eyes and ears of SBA.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All meetings are open to the public.
