20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

no meetings FY2004The Committee serves in an advisory capacity. In the past, its recommendations to the managing agencies pertaining to mitigation, enhancement and other fish and wildlife programs for the Garrison Diversion Unit Project have been well received and implemented. The Garrison Diversion Unit Reformulation Act of 1986, PL 99-294, directs the Secretary of the Interior to acquire up to 5,000 acres in the Kraft Slough and Pickell Slough areas, because of their unique wildlife values, and to manage those acres as a part of the National Wildlife Refuge System. During this reporting period, the managing agencies continue to pursue opportunities for the land acquisition.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership of the Council is balanced in accordance with requirements of the Charter. The legislation that established the Council, requires that the Incumbents of the following four positions, serve on the Council: (1) Regional Director, FWS; (2) Regional Director, Bureau of Reclamation; (3) Director of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department; (4) Commissioner, North Dakota Department of Agriculture. Additionally, three members from within the State of North Dakota and three members from outside the State of North Dakota serve on the Council.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Council is scheduled to meet twice yearly or more frequently at the call of the Chairperson. Controversy pertaining to the project, prior to the passage of the 1986, Garrison Diversion Unit Reformulation Act, was so extensive that it severely impacted most Fish and Wildlife Service programs in North Dakota. The Council did not meet during FY 04, while awaiting appointment/reappointment of members and renewal of the Charter. It is anticipated that there will be no meetings in FY 05.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This committee is needed to provide oversight for the Garrison Diversion Unit's mitigation, enhancement and other fish and wildlife programs associated with the project. Prior to the passage of the Garrison Diversion Unit Reformulation Act of 1986, that established the Council, there was significant, controversy in the State associated with wetland, waterfowl and mitigation issues. A lot of progress has been made regarding these issues. The Council has been effective by studying the issues, making recommendations to the managing agencies and, to date, there has been no necessity for elevating needed changes to the Secretary of the Interior and Governor of North Dakota for resolution.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not Applicable - all meetings are open to the public

21. Remarks

Terms for members have expired. Nominations for members have not been received from outside entities. In coordination with partners on the Council (Bureau of Reclamation, North Dakota Department of Agriculture, and North Dakota Game and Fish, it is recommended that the Council be terminated.

Designated Federal Officer

Ralph Morgenweck Regional Director, FWS,
Region 6

Agencies continue to carry out these activities. The Audubon (refuge) mitigation project is scheduled for completion in FY 06, the Arrowwood mitigation project is scheduled for
