20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

In FY 2004, IFAC 3 played an active role in advising the U.S. Government on negotiating objectives and priorities for the WTO Doha Ministerial conference, the Free Trade of the Americas, implementation of the Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) for Singapore and Chile, and the World Intellectual Property Organization. IFAC 3 has provided advice on the intellectual property rights aspects of four FTAs during 2004, the US-Central America FTA (CAFTA), the US-Australia FTA, the US-Morocco FTA, and the integration of the US-Dominican Republic FTA into the CAFTA. IFAC 3 also provided advice on incomplete FTAs in 2004 - SACU FTA, Bahrain FTA, Andean FTA and Panama FTA. In addition, IFAC 3 channeled its advice on Special 301 activities. The Special 301 provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 require the USG to determine whether the policies and practices of foreign countries deny adequate and effective IPR protection. IFAC 3 also continued to monitor implementation and compliance of the World Trade Organization TRIPs Agreement, providing advice on the World Trade Organization TRIPs Council biotechnology reviews and geographical indications register system, and World Trade Organization dispute settlement cases. In addition, IFAC 3 advised the U.S. Government on strategies for legislative action including the GSP and Caribbean Basin Initiative. IFAC 3 advised the U.S. Government on negotiating objectives and strategies for U.S. negotiating objectives for WTO accessions.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

IFAC 3 is reasonably well balanced between members who represent a broad spectrum of intellectual property industries, including entertainment and computer software industries. The Committee also has representatives from companies with trademark, pharmaceutical and biotechnology interests. IFAC 3 would benefit from additional expertise and representation from the wine industries.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Committee meets approximately five times a year. However, the actual number of meetings is dictated by Government need for private sector advice. The U.S. Government will be engaged in multilateral and bilateral trade policy initiatives including the FTAA and FTA negotiations, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation, World Trade Organization implementation and accession by Russia, China, Saudi Arabia, and other countries, and enforcement of trade agreements. The advice the Government receives from the private sector through the advisory committees will be an on-going process and will be an intrinsic part of developing U.S. positions for all policy negotiations.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Committee structure ensures a unique source of information to the Government. All members have security clearances and through a continuing dialogue with Government officials are made aware of Government trade policy at a level not otherwise available to the private sector. Because this Committee remains current in the broad spectrum of trade policy rather than a single facet--as would be the case in the absence of a committee structure--the private sector input from the Committee is more pertinent. The advisory committee program, legislatively mandated, is the single formal comprehensive consultative link between the U.S. Government and U.S. industry and has the responsibility to address all issues concerning trade policy.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

The Industry Consultations Program was established by the Trade Act of 1974 and in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). Subsection 135(f) of the Trade Act provides that the ISACs shall be exempt from the provisions of the FACA relating to open meetings, public notice, public participation, and public availability of documents when it is determined that the proceedings would, if disclosed, seriously compromise the Government's negotiating objectives or bargaining positions regarding trade policy matters. ISAC meetings routinely involve these kinds of discussions. The United States Trade Representative (USTR) evaluates each meeting agenda and issues a Notice of Determination when it is necessary to close meetings.

Narrative Description

The Committee advises the Secretary and the USTR concerning the trade matters referred to in Sections 101, 102, and 124 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended; with respect to the operation of any trade agreement once entered into; and with respect to other matters arising in connection with the development, implementation, and administration of the trade policy of the United States including those matters referred to in Reorganization Plan Number 3 of 1979 and Executive Order 12188, and the priorities for actions thereunder. In particular, the Committee provides detailed policy and technical advice, information, and recommendations to the Secretary and the USTR regarding trade barriers and implementation of trade agreements negotiated under Sections 101 or 102 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, and Sections 1102 and 1103 of the 1988 Trade Act, which affect the products of its sector; and performs such other advisory functions relevant to U.S. trade policy as may be requested by the Secretary and the USTR or their designees.

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

0

Number of Recommendations Comments

No measurable calculation. The IFAC 3 members presented their respective organization's views on priority issues on multilateral, bilateral and regional trade negotiations. Their advice and recommendations are mostly rendered orally during meetings while U.S. Government Officials are present. During this fiscal year the IFAC members presented advice and recommendations on priority issues on the various free trade agreements.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Fully Implemented Comments

No measurable calculation as section 135 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, does not bind the USTR and Secretary of Commerce to the advice submitted by the Committee.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Partially implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Partially Implemented Comments

No measurable calculation as section 135 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, does not bind the USTR and Secretary of Commerce to the advice submitted by the Committee.

Does the agency provide the committee with feedback regarding actions taken to implement recommendations or advice offered?

Yes ☒ No ☐ Not Applicable ☐

Agency Feedback Comments

Feedback is primarily rendered orally during meetings while U.S. Government Officials are present. Formal written advice addressed to the Secretary of Commerce (and/or jointly to the USTR), or their designees, is reviewed by the Secretary's policy staff and tasked to appropriate ITA unit to prepare a draft response. Commerce's internal procedures require that all responses for Secretarial signature (and/or joint signature with USTR) go through a concurrence process which ensures that the appropriate level Commerce officials are seeing the advice and have an opportunity for comment. All formal responses must be cleared by the Under Secretary of Commerce for International Trade prior to Secretary's signature, which ensures that the committee's advice is weighed and considered.
