20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The committee has developed, through the negotiated rulemaking process, amendments to existing regulations that govern the certification of vehicles that are manufactures in stages.The committee was terminated on May 5, 2002.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The membership includes all of the interested affected parties.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

There have been four meetings. The recommendations are complete, and no more meetings are planned.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Negotiated rulemaking is a very successful means of developing new rules or amending existing rules. Including the affected parties at the outset of the process allows everyone to buy into the rule as it is developed and reduces the possibility of challenges to the rulemaking at a later time.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

21. Remarks

Designated Federal Officer

Roberta Fede
