20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The American Samoa Economic Advisory Commission meets to analyze information gathered by staff, hear public comments and views, and in an advisory capacity, develop recommendations regarding the economic development of American Samoa. The Commission submits its recommendations to the Secretary of the Interior in a report. The Secretary may transmit it, along with any comments he deems necessary, to the President. If the President agrees with the report, he may transmit it with any comments to the President of the U.S. Senate and the speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Commission is composed of six members and one ex-officio member, representing three categories - two Federal government officials, two members who represent the financial, business, or trade community, and two members representing local area interests. The ex-officio member is the territorial Delegate to the U. S. House of Representatives.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Commission meetings will be called by the Chairman as often as deessary, but no less than one meeting will be held annually.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

American Samoa does not have sufficient local revenues to fund its entire operating costs. It desperately needs exteranal expertise in economic development to help provide its citizens with new ideas and incentives to assist rejuvenate its stagnant and limited economy. Since there is no existing advisory committee designed to do this work, the establishment of the American Samoa Economic Advisory Commission would be the best way to provide a centralized forum for this type of discourse.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All commission meetings are opened to the public and notices of meetings will be posted in the Federal Register.

21. Remarks
