20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

In conducting its meetings, the Commission provided a forum for discussions and information interchange with and among persons having an interest in the various administration, protection, and development aspects of the lakeshore.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

As prescribed by the enabling legislation, the Commission was composed of 10 members appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, as follows: (1) four members appointed from recommendations made by the counties in which the lakeshore is situated (two members to represent each county); (2) four members appointed from recommendations made by the Governor of the State of Michigan; and (3) two members designated by the Secretary of the Interior. The members represented a fair mix of geographical and philosophical backgrounds.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Commission generally met two to three times a year. The meetings provided for the dissemination of information/updates from park managers and for public response/input to the Committee's review process.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore Advisory Commission was established by the Congress to advise the Secretary of the Interior or the Secretary's designee regarding matters relating to: (1) the administration, protection and development of the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore, including the establishment of the zoning by-laws, construction and administration of scenic roads, procurement of land, condemnation of commercial property; and (2) the preparation and implementation of the land and water use management plan provided for in section 6(b) of Public Law 91-479.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

No meetings were closed.

21. Remarks

Pursuant to Section 4(a) of P.L. 91-479, as amended by P.L. 100-558, the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore Advisory Commission terminated on October 21, 1997.
